

Eritrea's senior delegation met with Sudanese leader and DFC

19 May 2019- Senior Eritrean delegation comprising Mr. Osman Saleh, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Presidential Adviser Mr. Yemane Gebreab met and delivered message of President Isaias Afwerki to the President of the Transitional Military Council of Sudan, Lt. Gen. Abdul Fattah Al-Burhan today, 19 May in Khartoum. In his message, President Isaias stressed Eritrea's confidence in the ability of the Sudanese people to find solution to their own issues.

The President of the Transitional Military Council of Sudan, Lt. Gen. Al-Burhan welcomed the initiative of Eritrea and briefed the delegation on the developments in the country. Both sides also affirmed their readiness to put the relations of the two countries back on track.

20 May 2019- The Eritrean senior delegation met and held talks on with the representatives of the Sudanese Declaration of Freedom and Change. The DFC welcomed the visit of the Eritrean delegation stressing special relations between the two countries and briefed about their vision for Sudan and current status of the negotiations with the Transitional Military Council.

The Eritrean delegation on its part conveyed Eritrea's wishes for an outcome that serves the interests of peace, stability and development in Sudan. The delegation on 19 May met with the Deputy President of the Transitional Military Council, Gen. Mohammed Hamdan. Gen. Hamdan said that the current visit of the Eritrean delegation signifies the end of a chapter and the beginning of a promising occasion in the bilateral ties between Eritrea and the Sudan.

Source: Shabait.com